

PRESS RELEASE

Piraeus Financial Holdings a constituent of FTSE4Good

Piraeus Financial Holdings is once again a constituent of the FTSE4Good Emerging Index of FTSE Russell, for its performance in the areas of environment, society and governance (ESG).

The overall score of Piraeus is higher than the average score of banks and the financial sector worldwide, in all three pillars (ESG). Piraeus was particularly distinguished in the sectors related to risk management, anti-corruption, and protection of human rights.

FTSE4Good is one of the most recognized rating agencies in the world, that monitors in detail the performance of companies and banks regarding the way they address issues of corporate governance, climate change, responsible investment, and work practices. Following the analysis, FTSE then communicates to international investors the companies that fulfill the assessment criteria and succeed in entering the index.

As of May 2022, the index includes 536 companies, of which 142 belong to the financial sector and 7 are based in Greece.

Firmly committed to the UN Principles for Responsible Banking, Piraeus Group is on a dynamic course of sustainability, in alignment with its goal of having a positive impact on the Greek economy and society, creating value for its shareholders, customers, and employees.
